“ Louise, Mark and Family,

I am so sorry for the loss of your beloved dad. I feel he is a kindred spirit with me as a fellow Airman. May his memory of a being a devoted and loving husband, father, grandpa and great grandpa bring you God's comfort in this time of grief.

*With our condolences,

“ Ted,
I know how much your father meant to you. It is hard to lose your parents even after they have had an amazingly long life. Let your memories of the good times bouy your spirits and help you celebrate a wonderful life together.

*Sincerely,

“ Louise, Thank you for calling me. Your mother and dad were a big part of my life and I will always consider it a privilege to have had them for neighbors and friends. I remember your dad sharing a few of his military stories and pictures; admired him for the way he kept his beautiful yard and his garden and grapes and just being a wonderful gentleman! My condolences to all of the family.

Blessings,
