“ *I am here again, although my sister was all of these nice things that all the wonderful people are taking the time to say on her Tribute Wall, I would like to also say that there was no one ever like her and can never be in this lifetime, she was truly unique and so much fun, she found the good in everyone and could make me laugh till I cried with her silly notions sometimes, she would think about what she did or said and would just say, "OH, Where Was I", "OH Yeah" and she would. She was a funny person and made me happy and content just to be by her. I am truly lost now with out her, she was my escape from reality. I send her where ever she is my undying love.

“No words can describe the love you openly shared with so many people.” You came into my life when life was so difficult and God sent you to help me. This is so true of how you lived, loved, helped, and supported anyone that came into your life. The countless hours we spent everyday (7 days a week) for so many years. It is those conversations that helped me become the person I am today. The term friendship is so vague and overly used in our world. However, you were more than a friend to me. Your passing is so hurtful, because humans are selfish. You are where you belong, You are home and we will have to move on without you. But, I know I will see you again. You were the wealthiest person I have ever met, because of what you did for so many people and the impact on their lives. I will always remember your advise and wisdom. And do my best to share that with others. As you always referenced me as your "brother," I guess you were my sister too. I loved that you thought of me that way. I will keep my promise to you too. Miss you always.

“ I will always love you, my friend. And you were a great role model. Buddy, Tiffany, Kyle, Luke, Cassie, Wendy, April and Tara...she loved you all very much and spoke to me about all of you in our recent quiet moments. She also spoke about your children. You all kept her with us for just a little while longer. I am grateful that you opened your home to me so I could visit with Barb. She cared about all of you so much. Pam, I hope you know that you lifted her spirits as well. Barb was a good woman and I am proud to call her my friend. I will miss you, Barb.

“ My sister was my favorite person, she was my escape when I was feeling down and always lifted my spirits. I loved her and will miss her everyday for the rest of my life. She once told me "Don't make the mistake of letting yesterdays sorrows use up too much of today." My sister, my friend, my inspiration, goodbye.

Buddy and Barb's Family,
My thoughts and prayers are with you. Barb was a very special person and she touched a lot of people with her kindness and love. She will be missed by many people and her memory will continue in the lives of the people she helped and cared for. May God bless you with His comfort and strength during this time of great sadness and loss.
