

Benjamin Joseph Malawey

January 4, 1981 - September 7, 2016

Benjamin Joseph Malawey of St. Louis, MO born January 4, 1981 to Stanley and Ramona (nee Bickl) Malawey died September 7, 2016 at Mercy hospital in St. Louis, MO. Loving brother and brother-in-law of Lonnie Malawey, and Tammy (Bill) Cameron; cherished father of Raven Malawey; dear uncle of Logan (Terri) Cameron and Katelyn Cameron; cousin, nephew, and friend of many. Benjamin was preceded in death by his wife Sarea Malawey. Benjamin worked making assorted woodworks as a very talented woodworker following in the footsteps of his past grandfather, John Bickl. Benjamin attended McCluer Senior High and went on to study Freelancer at ITT Technical Institute where he graduated with honors. He worked at the St. Louis Renaissance Festival seasonally for many years, where he taught many people the finer art of blade throwing. He could always be found in full character dressed as a pirate entertaining everyone he met. He inspired people to live in the moment and could always share a hug and a smile. When off work, he loved playing with his daughter and enjoyed gaming, movies, music, metal working and hanging out with his friends. He was part of a large, loving family in which he was a dear father, son, brother, uncle, cousin and great friend. “ It will not be the same in the shop this year without your fly-through hugs and greeting each faire day, or the days-end conversation when we both had the time at close. Your easy open spirit touched everyone you met, particularly the children. Thank you for being part of our lives. Fair wind and full sails, my friend.

“ I remember when Ben was a little boy and was at the wedding of his sister and my son. At the reception, he told me about a lizard he wanted and I gave him money to buy it He was a little charmer, and grew into a good man and good father. I am heartbroken and my heart is with his family.

“ I am sad to see this. I have not seen Ben since high school and I did not know him well then. The memory that I want to share is that whenever he approached the lunch table I enjoyed the energy he brought with him. I am so sorry for the loss to those who were close to him.

“ I have many great memories but one of the coolest ones a few days after having my first daughter i had a visitor to my room. It was Ben coming in to tell me that his daughter Raven was just born. So our girls are only a few days apart. I'm gonna miss you so much. My heart and prayers go out to your family. Fly high brother.

“ Ben, you are loved by so many. Such a loving young man with a smile and hug for all. Somehow our bond started when grandma passed away. Not sure why but it was an unbreakable bond. Though our times together were short and far between it was like no time passed at all. I am sorry your family will miss you but I am happy you are with grandma. I love you so much. Your cousin and friend. Karen
