“ Karen, We are so sorry for your loss. I didn't have the priviledge of meeting Carol but if she was anything like her Mom she was a strong, beautiful person. We are keeping you and your family in our prayers. God needed another Angel.

“ Although I haven't seen Carol in years, I can remember the fond memories of our families getting together. When it was a weekend camping or our parents meeting for a game of poker while all of us kids played together when we were young. They are great memories that I will never forget. Thanks for the memories Carol. You will be missed.

“Carol was such a beautiful soul. Kind and compassionate. I am so sorry that her life was cut so short. The pain of losing a loved one is great and often there are no words that can truly ease the pain. Man appears for a day and disappears tomorrow. Then we are left with only tears and sorrow. But if we cling to God He can give us hope. Hope in a better future. Hope that soon we will see our loved ones again. - John 5:28; Revelation 21:3, 4; Job 14:14, 15. May God's tender mercies comfort you and may you find strength in His everlasting love. My prayers are with you.

Carol & I may not have seen each other in a long time until about a month ago. I was so happy to see her. I will always cherish the time we had and never forget the memories we made together over the years.

“ Carol and I were friends all the way to grade school, and I have very fond memories of her. She and I used to walk back and forth to each others house in the hot summer days, she used to come with me and ride my horse to Sioux Passage park.... She's now at her permanent and real home with our blessed Father God...

“ Carol and I were friends back in high school. She was a trooper in life's journey. She is with Jesus & Donnie now, and is at peace. Karen, may god be with you during this difficult time, my prayers are with you and your family. I just had both my feet operated on,so I'm going to do my best to be there tomorrow night. God Bless.

“ Dearest Carol, You have been my best friend for many years and always will be. You and I have been through so much together and you were always someone that I could count on to be there, with me and for me. I love you so much. I know you have found peace and that we will meet again. I miss you so much already. What am I going to do without you? You taught me to be strong and positive and I can never thank you enough. You will always be in my heart, girlfriend. Always, Lauren

“ Carol was one of a kind, strong, determined, steadfast. These qualities saw her through joys and trials in her short life. I wish she could have visited the farm with her mom just one time. We would have had a hoot catching up.
Until we meet again, love you, sweet Carol.
