“ Dear Joanne and Brian (and all family),
I cannot begin to tell you how shocked and saddened I am by the loss of my beloved friend, Connie Joy. Yes, I knew she was ill and had suffered more physical hardships and pain than anyone I knew. Still....somehow it's hard to believe that one so full of life and joy as Connie could ever pass from this world. And yet, I say in the same breath, that Connie is fully and gloriously ALIVE in the presence of the God and Savior she loved so well. I know she is more radiant and joyful than ever. Please know, though, that even knowing this, the pain you feel--I feel--we all feel--is real and palpable. For we wanted her to share her special brand of love, joy, and caring compassion with us forever. She was a rare friend to me--one who really listened, really cared. She never interrupted, and often I would share my heart when I had wanted her to share hers....when I had wanted to comfort her! I write this through tears. We met in the 80s and how I loved our dinners, phone chats, and her glowing radiance and that of your precious Mother (whom we dubbed Mama Connie--a very special lady) when they would come here for my annual Christian women's Christmas luncheon. They were the life of our party, I assure you. And how we have missed them these past two years, when your sweet mama passed away, and Connie was no longer able to come. As you well know, Connie's middle name is Louise, but she didn't seem to mind that I took the liberty of calling her Connie Joy. She often called herself that to me. I could think of no better name for her. Please accept the love and sympathy of my husband, Michael, daughter, Sheridan, Mother, Fern, and all the Lilies who loved and appreciated Connie so well! Please know how much we will miss her and cannot imagine your own sadness at her loss. Please know you are in our prayers.
Love
Lynni (Morrissey)

Joanne and family, I am so sorry for your loss. I remember meeting Connie at First Christian Church in Florissant. She was a greeter and was very friendly to everyone. She was always happy to see me when I went to church. May she rest in peace.
