“ We were so blessed to have you in our lives for as long as we can remember. Sharing cherished memories as dear family friends/neighbors since the 1950's! The rides you gave us to Sacred Heart School, always knowing you were right next door to call on for help when needed. Never forgetting the nicknames you gave we three older girls; Pain, Red and Dutch, that stuck for all those years. I am so happy we were able to catch up a few months ago with you, Dan and Debbie, Molly and Paul, and myself to relive the times of days gone by. We loved you Dan Costello and will cherish all the memories from "The Flat Tops and St. Louis Ave. Thank you! ❤️🍀

“ I never once saw a cross look on Mr. Costello's face. He always had a smile and a chuckle. I gave him a hug every time I saw him. What a dear man.
