

Danny N. Franck

July 6, 2000 - February 27, 2013

Franck, Danny Nathan, Our bright and beautiful shining light in this world was taken from us far too soon on February 27, 2013 at the age of twelve from a 11 month battle of Brain/Spinal Cancer.

Our beloved son, brother, grandson, nephew, cousin and friend was known by many. Danny was survived by his parents, George and Peggy (Quinlan) Franck as well as his siblings Jacob, Rachel and Brandon and his dog Duke; The grandson of Pat Franck and the late George Franck and Leo and Betty Quinlan.

Danny one of those kids who had a wealth of knowledge about everything. If you had a conversation with him he would just amaze you with what he had to say. He was wise beyond his years. He will be forever missed , but never forgotten.

“ I am lighting a candle in Danny's memory mostly because he was a little sweetheart and also because I remember being so fortunate to have attended one of his grade school holiday shows and watched him perform "This Little Light of Mine". He invited me to come see him sing at a family get together just prior to the program. And in typical Danny style, while many of the kids behind him were misbehaving, he was standing in front doing just what he was supposed to be doing - entertaining. How grateful I am that I was invited to hear a little angel sing!

“ Danny,

You have only been gone from us for a day and yet it already seems like an eternity. We can not begin to tell you how classy, brave, strong and courageous you were through the last 11 months. You have showed us the true meaning of life. You may have been only 12 years old, but you had the most gracious, mature, thoughtful, kind and gentle sole of any kid. Thank you for being our Son and Brother, we will miss you beyond belief. Until we can be with you again, we love you to the infinite power, times 2, times ditto! Much Love, Mom, Dad, Jacob, Rachel, Brandon and Duke
