“ Uncle Dave,

We all miss you so much. Not only were you my Uncle, but also my Godfather. I learned a lot from you. I have so many great memories of us together, which I am forever grateful for. We were just sharing stories with Grandpa and Grandma and I brought up the Christmas prank you pulled on me years back. Where you wrapped up a big box, which I thought was a brand new computer (I had wanted one forever), and it turned out to be just a tiny computer shaped FM radio with bricks in the box to weigh it down. You got me on that one! It was fun to play jokes on each other and we did a good job at it. I am going to miss that.

As Uncle Jerry said, give Greg a big high five and keep a watch over us.

*Love you,
John*

“ *My dear brother, I miss you already.
You're trials have been many. Along the way you've brought great awareness to many of us who've gotten caught up in daily struggles. It doesn't take long being around you to know that my challenges aren't so over whelming.
I love you, I miss you, and please say hi to Greg for me. You got to see him before me.
Love Jerry*

*Dear Jerry, Mary & Keeven Families,
My heart goes out to all of you. I remember Dave from our family parties at your house. I was shocked to learn online tonight of the passing of Frank, Greg and Dave. Franks gentleness and wisdom, Gregs cheerfulness as a child and always playing games with the girls and Daves determination to not give up. I am holding both families up in prayer. What a celebration they are having in heaven. Hold on to God and His love and know that the Bible tells us we will all meet again when we all get to heaven.
With Love & My Deepest Sympathy,
Rhonda K. Barrett*
