“ SORRY THE LOSS OF YOUR BELOVED HUSBAND
I REMEMBER MEETING YOU & YOUR FAMILY WHEN I CAME TO VISIT DAWN WHEN SHE LIVED NEXT DOOR WITH TO YOU. DAVID WAS
A VERY STRONG MAN TO BATTLE THE FIGHT
HE HAD TO ENDURE. DAWN WAS VERY FOND
& CARED FOR HIM & YOU. NO WORDS CAN BE WRITTEN TO HELP YOU AT THE TIME BUT YOU WILL ALWAYS HAVE YOUR MEMORIES TO KEEP NEXT TO YOUR HEART###imported-begin##LA DONNA PARSON - DAWN

“ I think about David and I when we were younger staying with Grammie and grandpa in the summer,going to the theater en St. Louis to see Gone with the Wind, 2001 A Space Odyessy,going on the S. S. Admiral snd just being together because we always had good times. Those were just a few memories. There were many more as I could write a book about them. Thanks for the beautiful times. Thanks for being my cousin.##imported-begin##John Faulkner##imported-end##

“ Dear Phyllis, Mark and Sarah,
We remember the picnics, softball games and all the other fun we shared as neighbors and parents. Most of all we will miss those long talks in the yard with mosquitoes biting and the sun going down. The next thing we'd know, it would be 9:30 and you would have to run home. It was an honor to know Dave and our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ David:

We will all miss you greatly, but we know it is your wish and prayer that we come together to remember all the cherished years that you shared here with us. You have always been a good cousin to many of us who will always think of the good times throughout your all too shortened life. We will always think of your smile and know that you are now smiling upon us from Heaven. We love you David, and will think of you often.

Our prayers are with Phyllis, Sarah, Mark, your Mother Lois, and all the rest of your immediate family.##imported-begin##Sandy Bohler##imported-end##
