I have known Denis since I was 19yrs old. We bowled together, went bar hopping he was known as Teddy Bear back then. Denis gave me tons of beautiful pictures of my daughters homecomings & proms all thru high school. Also a lot of good pictures when a group of us went to Hawaii. Denis has done a lot of house remodeling for me and been a dear friend always, he truly was a big Teddy Bear. I will miss him much.

“I miss my brother Denis so much. We had the best of times together. When we were small he gave my doll a very short hair cut. Mom and Dad were proud of him because Dad was a barber. Can't say I shared their feeling.
Just passed mirror and memories of Denis came flooding back. Today God has given me that same hairdo. Denis would find that so amusing. As a matter of fact, so do I. Miss you little bro. Love, your big sis. Florence Ann

We are all missing Denis. He was such a huge part of our circle. He always had a hug, smile, good word. I am blessed to have known him, and thankful to have him as a friend. It's not going to be the same without you Denis.

How appropriate - A butterfly with a slightly damaged wing on Denis's shoulder. Two of God's beautiful creations that shared so much. They each bring joy and good feelings every where they go. Everytime I see a butterfly it will remind me of this warm gentle caring man I was blessed to have known. He will always be with us and never again in pain.

“ *In Meetup circles, Denis was known
To always give much more than he took.
He did that in a far greater manner
Than most who claim to follow the good book.*

*Denis would love just visiting friends
Then, volunteering to do a home repair.
Add that to all the events he attended...
Yes, Denis seemed to be everywhere!*

*He enriched our lives in oh SOOOO many ways,
With great photography and a glorious smile.
In reality, Denis was a simple soul,
But he carried himself with real style.*

*Several hundred of us will miss Denis so much
In ways that can't be described in words.
But it's great to know he'll be looking down upon us,
Soaring with eagles and other majestic birds!*

*Our forever love, brother Denis...

Denis and I visited the Smoky Mountains, Kearney NB (sandhill cranes), LeClaire, IA (eagles and American Pickers) as well as local areas such as Clarksville, Augusta, Riverlands and numerous other sites. He was always ready to go and if a long haul would have the oil changed, XM radio paid up and his Pepsi in the truck! We would drive to Clarksville and he would stop by the bakery to pick up my favorite "Old Time" donuts for the trip. There wasn't anything he wouldn't do for anyone.

“ I was sitting here trying to think of a story about Denis, I couldn't pick one. There are just too many wonderful stories about him. Everyone that you talk to has just awesome stories to tell, and no one loved telling a story more than Denis. From the time we met till the other day, he always had a positive story about someone or something. Getting a " hi" or a hand shake from somebody to running into an old friend. He would find trinkets or tools at a yard sale for a couple of dollars and he made you feel like he won the lottery. He was always a good sport and I cannot say that I ever saw him get mad. He was surely a true friend that always let you know what bothered him if you were lucky enough to be in his inner circle, and I was and would have traded my life for his anyway. To many people are hurting as a result of his untimely death. I am sure he was welcomed to heaven with open arms with his dad saying " Son, I have been waiting for you!"❤️

“ At first I liked Denis because he was fun and friendly and pleasant. But knowing him a while led me to realize he possessed a rare kind of sensitivity—to art, to nature, to other people. He was quick to bail me out when I messed up a plumbing project, but a lot of people would have teased me for messing up. Instead, he was careful to reassure me that the fault wasn't my own stupidity, but just that I lacked the correct tools. Then he downplayed the enormous favor. He was the only man I know who could shop with a group of women or laugh with a group of men and seem equally at home. What a complex and delightful human being. How I'll miss his friendship and his beautiful photographs.

“ Denis was a wonderful and delightful friend to me. I met Denis at a Meetup of Singles Again some years ago when we both attended a Halloween haunted house event. Denis joked often how he still had hearing loss in one ear from all my screaming!

I hired Denis to do maintenance work around my home. He was invaluable to me, as a single lady who owned her own home, and had no knowledge of repairs. Denis always got the job done - he was talented. Also, I always looked forward to him coming over as he was a lot of fun to chat with, and he kept me in the loop as to the goings-on in the meetup groups. I often couldn't go to the events as I was working a lot. We shared some meals, gossip, and a lot of laughs. The last time that I spent time with Denis was at a wine-tasting party that I had at my home. He always fit in so well with everyone -everyone liked him and without Denis, it wasn't a party. He was a true people-person and a blessing in my life.

My strong Christian faith and belief in Jesus lets me know that Denis may have lost his earthly body, but he is still alive.

I know that his family must be hearbroken, as are his friends, myself included. I pray now for Denis' family that God will strongly communicate to them, and reassure them at this devastating point in life on planet earth. In our savior's name, Amen.
