“ We wanted you to know how sorry we are to hear about the loss of little Donna. We know that there are no words that can make it better or any easier. Know that time will help and remember each day that you spent with your precious little girl. She is in a much better place, joined with our special angels in heaven.

Take care,

“ What can one say, when the heart is choked with sorrow and its voice cries is silenced in grief? Donna was always an angel, somehow she was always connected to a joyful spirit, one just a little beyond our grasp. In her simplicity, she taught me a lesson every day I shared with her. The sheer joy of being alive, and happy with the simplest of things: A smile, a kind word, being held, being touched, or sharing a moment of sacred silence, in a world gone mad. I took care of Donna, because I loved Donna. And somehow I found comfort in bringing her comfort.

I pray her spirit will find constant peace and joy, that her family will grow in the spirit of love and the peace of well being that comes from taking care of each other.

“ We are so sorry for your loss and cannot imagine the pain and sorrow you are experiencing. We do know that God is a loving God and He knows the "big Picture" of what each of our lives are to be purposed for. Thank God for the time He did allow you with little Donna and know that she is struggling no more but at peace with her creator.

God Bless, our prayers are with you!

“ May the following words help to comfort you and yours during this time.

*My Life is but a weaving, between my Lord and me.
I can not choose the pattern he weaves so steadily.
Sometimes he weaves in sorrow while I in foolish pride, forgets he sees the upper while I the underside.
Not till the loom is silent, and the shuttles cease to fly, will he unveil the canvas and explain the reasons why.
The dark threads are as needful in the weaver's skillful hand, as the threads of gold and silver in the pattern he has planned.##imported-

“ I believe that God is looking out for each and everyone of us. He, for some reason, needed Donna with him. I believe being with God in heaven is by far any better place than we are at. Thank God for knowing all he knows and doing the best for Donna. Our hearts and prayers are with you. Daryn and Beth###imported-begin##Daryn and Beth ###imported-end##

“ I did not die

*Do not stand at my grave and weep;
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.*

*When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there, I did not die.##imported-begin##Ryann L
