“ a true warrior for the word of God. my family had the pleasure to share the same pew at church she was good at sharing stories and her love for john and her family.she always had a hug or kiss for you and a great smile to share.she is a true friend and will be missed.my prays go out to all her family. Heavens gain is our lose until we meet again in heaven with our sister Doris.

“ Doris was a wonderful helpmate for Pastor John, and she was a wonderful and caring mother and grand-mother. She cared about everyone, including her sisters and other relatives. She was a good friend, and Barbara Stiver, Joyce Rudd and I spent many hours in her home studying and praying. She was also a loyal Sunday School Class member, and I know that Kate and Bill Allen and Barbara Turnbow also miss her too. Likewise, she had friends who were missionaries from all around the world. Thank you to son Tom and beautiful granddaughters who took such good care of her.
With love,
