“ Frank and I have so many great memories of Aunt Edna being the "go to" lady. For Frank, Aunt Edna had so many answers to unusual problems as he was growing up. After we married and happened to live two doors away, she continued to share her solutions and ever cheerful answers to living in Florissant. Now some 50 years later, we continued over the years to exchange greetings and occasionally visited her, including just this past July, at her lovely home. She was delightful as always! Indeed, we will miss her.

“ Roger and Linda, Mom has referred to Edna as a "walking Bible". She must have been an amazing lady. Thinking of you both during this time. - - Tracey (Fuss) Blair

“ I have always admired sister Edna's gifted memory and recalls of the Holy Scriptures. She was a walking Biblical encyclopedia and a joy to listen to during many years of Bible classes with her. Not only did she know the scriptures but she could quote them Book, Chapter and Verse word-for-word. A truly amazing and sweet woman. I loved her and will miss her so much. Go in peace my sister.

“ I will always remember Edna as one of my favorite Bible Class teachers. She challenged us to study and learn for ourselves. If you ever asked a question she would most likely respond with "well let's look for ourselves." She was a true blessing to each of us that knew and loved her.
