“ Our deepest sympathies to June and the Klenc off springs. Eddie was a loyal parishioner of Sacred Heart and a happy friend to all. His smiling face and ever present pipe bring a smile to our faces. May he rest in peace and his smile be present in the heavenly court. The family and Eddie will be in our prayers always. Love Dick and Mary Lou Ampleman

“ John & Pat, I am very sorry for the loss of your father.....what a handsome and happy man he seems to have been..and with 6 sons your time with him and the fun you must of had with him will forever be in your heart and head. At 91 he had a long and hopefully happy life...and you had all that time to be a part of it.....you are blessed.
