“ Uncle Beezo, I can't believe you have been gone over a year now. There isn't a day that goes by that I don't think about you. Loved camping with you and hearing you yell "RECOLA" early in the morning and waking the whole campground up. LOL Those I times I will forever remember. I love you with all of my heart little brother.

“Dad, I still can't believe you're gone. These last couple days have been so hard for me. I lost my best friend, but most importantly I lost the greatest father a girl could have. I told you everything and you always gave me great advice. You taught me so many things, for instance, how to fix a furnace. I am so glad that you allowed me to go on your job calls with you. I always enjoyed watching you do what you loved. You taught me that when life knocks you down, you need to just stand up, smile and laugh. I am going to miss going motorcycle riding with you. I am also going to miss when you would wake me up in the morning, you'd come into my bedroom and just start singing. Dad, I love you so much and I am going to miss you terribly. And remember that I will always be Daddy's Little Girl <3

“Wow I don't even know where to begin. Ernie you were a great man and father and even better papa to my little girl. The memories we shared will forever be in our hearts and I'm so very grateful to have known you. Although you are gone you will not be forgotten. I send my love and deepest condolences to the entire Klaesner family in this time of need. May you forever cherish the good times spent. Rip Ernie as you cruise off into the sunset on your motorcycle doing one of the many things you loved.

“ Bud- Words can not express what Scott and I are feeling right now. You have been such a big part of our family, and now there is this empty space in our heart that can not be filled. You were such a simple man who never complained or bothered anyone. We know that your pain has gone away and you are resting in peace. Don't worry about mom you know that we will take care of her. The memories we have shared will last forever. Yabadabba dooo!!! We love you.!!
