“ Janice, Paul and Family,

My deepest sympathy goes out to all of you on the loss of my godmother Aunt Florence. She was a wonderful sister to Mom and a great support during all of her trials. One of the things we always enjoyed were the letters she would write on an old fashioned typewriter when she was working for the real estate company. Mom always called them her "epistles". May she rest in peace surrounded by those she loved who have gone before her.

All my love,

Linda M. Bush

“ Janice, Paul and Family,

My deepest condolences over the loss of your mother. It seems we appear for a day and disappear tomorrow. I know the distress of losing your mother is great. Mere words can hardly express what is felt or can really ease your pain. But if you cling to God He can be a source of great comfort. Through God's Son we have hope. Hope in a better future. Hope that soon we will be able to embrace our loved ones again – this time never having to say goodbye. - John 5:28; Revelation 21:3, 4; Matthew 5:5. Cling to God in prayer. Psalms 83:18. Pour out your heart to Him. He can be your stronghold during this most grievous time. May your cherished memories and the promise of life in paradise bring you peace. Loving thoughts and prayers of peace are with the family.
