“ Gary Newbound used to let me sit on his lap and taught me to shift gears while he olerated tge clutch. i was only about 7. It was in that white work truck he drove because my mom was in the middle and N James (whom I recall vividly as well) were in the other seats. Gary always had a glass Pepsi bottle with him. One of the nicest guys in the family. Yours Truly, Lisa Fay

“ A Successful Man (Gary)

*That man is a success -
who has lived well, laughed often and loved much;
who has gained the respect of intelligent men and the love of children & grandchildren
who has filled his niche and accomplished his task;
who leaves the world better than he found it;
who has never lacked appreciation of earth's beauty or failed to express it.;
who looked for the best in others and gave the best he had.*

With my sincere sympathy Michelle & Danielle (precious Shelby and Emma)

“ Gary, Brother you are a great friend. You have helped me with out question. Not only are you a great friend but a honest person that are far and few between. It's hard to find true friends like you! The first time I met you, it was your sister Vicky that introduced you to me and my wife Sherry. At the first time I was completely dumbfounded of you. I couldn't believe you even gave me a helping hand. You didn't know me at all. Your sister asked you to help out a friend of hers and when you came and help us out you was so down to earth and you treated us as you would your family! It's people like you that make having a friend a pleaser. You treated me like any other person even though I live in a wheelchair and I have no legs. I enjoy your company even though you couldn't hear me because of those damn hearing aids that you hated. It cracked me up when you and Vicky stopped by to say hello and I would be talking away even thought you couldn't hear me. You never answered me but I didn't care. You would just turn and smile at me and say something silly about Vicky... Vicky would have to remind me that you couldn't hear me. I think you heard what you wanted and you didn't when you figured it was nothing but drama..... It's nice to have that ability...lol.... It's is a great pleasure to know you and to be a friend!! You don't know this, but you gave me inspiration. You helped me realize that it doesn't matter what you are and having a disability isn't worth worrying about. It's still you, it's just that you have a different way of taking care of things in a different way. I could keep going on about you and my main point is that, you are a very true friend, and it's a sure pleasure to know you and your sister Vicky. I'm proud to say that you are my friend and you always treated me as such! My God Bless You and you family. You will be sorely missed. You will always be a friend and even more?
For your family I say to them that celebrate your life, in my eyes you are the light of the party! I will always talk highly about you to anyone! From my family to your family, My you rest in pease and we love you like family "Brother" just as your family does us.

Sincerely,
The Cayce Family

“ I have known michelle a long time, her dad always came to our rescue if we ever got in trouble. I think my favorite memory was when he came to our apartment and we were watching the lion king, he made fun of us like crazy! Never let us live that one down! Gary was Dad to us all. I'm so sorry Michelle and Danielle.

*Love you guys
