“The world lost a wonderful man this week. “Pops” was funny, clever, thoughtful, insightful, a proud Marine and an all-around beautiful human being. He will truly be missed. My heart aches for his family and friends. I’ll never forget how he taught me the ‘proper’ way to wrap a gift. Every single time, I think of him drolly chastising me for “not lining up the design right”. I learned the U.S. Marine Corps Hymn just for him because it held a special place in his heart. Leslie and I would sing it to him on his birthday and march around the house. We laughed so much! I will be singing it in your honor now and always Big Guy!

I'll miss you Pops but rest easy, we've got this now.

*From the From the Halls of Montezuma,
To the Shores of Tripoli;
We fight our country's battles
In the air, on land and sea;
First to fight for right and freedom
And to keep our honor clean;
We are proud to claim the title of United States Marine.*
