“ The entire Holmes family sends their condolences and a special one from his long time friend and neighbor R.Donald Holmes, our father. Don always enjoyed John's frequent visits when our father lost his mobility and was confined to his home.

“ John was a dear friend, and a exceptional team-mate at McDonnell. Even after John retired, I could call him with a problem I was having in the design of the Harpoon missile and he would gladly help me solve. His memory was impeccable!

We shared e-mails on a daily bases I think was still using the first computer he ever purchased (I'm sure he updated it on his own).

May the good Lord remember Jon in his kingdom, and may his memory be eternal.

With deepest sorrow,
Nick Cassimatis
