“ It has been 5 weeks since you passed away and my heart aches for you, wishing you were here every single day, I miss your beautiful smile, your quirky sense of humor and most of all our evenings of sitting outside just watching the birds and holding hands and making plans for when you would be better. You were the best husband to me and I will always think of you because the memories of us together will brighten the darkest hours and I want you to know I am grateful for the time we had together. Forever love, your wife.

“ I am very sorry for your loss. I hadn't seen john for years but I remember his smile. I knew him from my sister-in-law, Deanna. He was her little brother, she loved him dearly. I have to believe they are together once again. I remember him always cutting up, joking around. Someone people liked to be around. He seemed like he was such a happy person and I know that was because he had you by his side. He would want you to, " Smile Though Your Heart is Breaking". I will keep you in my prayers. God bless you.

“ You will be truly missed. You have been a great uncle and a man that I really looked up to. You were so laid back and it never seemed like anything ever bothered you. I will miss your many stories that we laughed so hard about. The memories I have about you will never be forgotten. Love you man.
