“ I'll never forget picking up my twin aunts from the San Diego airport when they flew in for the twin reunion I hosted in Oceanside. They jumped.in my convertible BMW and talked my ear off the whole trip back. Twin stereo. Nothin' quite like it .Aunt Joyce will be missed. God bless her heart.

Richard, I remember my cousin Joyce as well, Her husband, Quentin, and I kept in contact as he was writing the "Willett Family History". I have fond memories of visiting cousin Joyce with my parents, Albert and Virginia Willett.

“ So many wonderful memories of Aunt Joyce - both on her trips to California and our visits to Missouri. It was always fun to see Aunt Joyce! I am proud to carry her name as a tribute to a wonderful mother, wife, sister, and aunt! I send our love and thoughts to all of my cousins at this difficult time.

Love,
Marilyn Joyce (Foley) Myrick and family

Fond memory of visiting Aunt Joyce and Aunt Joan in Missouri to help them celebrate their 80th birthday! My twin sister and I stayed with them in a condo and we had a lot of laughs together!
