Luingene, you will always be in my heart. You are with our lord and Irene that brings me comfort, you were a very kind and loving soul. Your were a wonderful father to me, even though you were my father-in-law. I always have thought of you as my father. you will greatly be missed by many but never ever really gone or forgotten. Thank you for all the wonderful stories and laughter, they are forever in bedded in my memories. Until we meet again in heaven. Love Always! Paula
