“ The world is going to miss one firecracker of a woman!! Not knowing she was Jackie's sister, a woman I knew from living at Waterford Square for years, I met Mary Jeanne while walking at Jamestown Mall. She was so energetic and had such an impressive love of life, faith and family. My deepest sympathy goes out to you all.

“ Dear Mary Carol, Larry, Sean and Kate,

Hi. We are soooo sorry for your loss. What a wonderful person your mom was to so many people. I so enjoyed being with her in exercise classes while I was at St. Rose. And of course no one made potato salad like your mom!!! Know that just as reminder she passed away on the two year anniversary of my dad's passing. I'm sure he was there to welcome her home, along with your dad and many others. Thank you for asking me to serve at the Mass I would be honored to so do for you. Your mom and I do have a common name, I also go by Grammy! You are all my prayers. Many the Lord give you strength and peace in the days ahead and years to come.

*Love,
Pete and Kate
xoxo*
