“ There is not enough space on my computer to let you know what is in my heart. You have been my dearest friend for 42 years there has been so many good times and some sorrow but together we got through everything that was thrown at us and there is no words to tell you how much you were loved and will be missed. Rest in peace and we will meet again some day##imported-begin##Mary##imported-end##

“ Grandma
I love you to much to put it into words. I will miss you every day for the rest of my life. You were always a free spirit and now more than ever. I will cherish the times we have spent together. Like when we went camping and you danced around the fire to make it change colors, or how about when you made me believe there were alligators under the television. You also promised to go with me to try on wedding dresses. Yes, you said you would put one on. I will be thinking of you, and come September, I will still be thinking about you. I know you will be there in spirit but not in my pictures or in the front row, or out on the dance floor. You will be missed dearly. I love you.
Your granddaughter,
Amy##imported-begin##Amy ##imported-end##

“ Dear Family:

I am one of Nancy's e-mail friends. I met her approximately five years ago when I emailed her by accident. . . I was just sending a routine joke to a friend, and happened to type the address incorrectly. After sending Nancy several jokes, she finally emailed me back and said "Dang, girl, I don't know you and you don't know me, but I love your jokes. Please keep me on your list." ...and I did keep her on my list...and she kept me on hers. We would sometimes get serious and write back and forth about family, life, our holiday celebrations, all of those family weddings and grandchildren, family values, our husbands, our past, our futureNancy became a great friend and confidant; she was a lovely lady, and exhibited such a wonderful sense of humor...she was such fun.

My husband and I had the pleasure of meeting Nancy and her daughter this summer when we passed through St Louis after being in Branson. We met for lunch and had such a pleasant time. I'll always remember how Nancy leaned across the table and said "I brought my daughter along, just in case you two turned out to be axe murderers." And I had just been about to say the same thing to her! Did we laugh!

She held her family close to her heart and loved them so much. She was fiercely proud of her children and what they had become. . . .and of her grands and great grands too! Her latest thrill was the new little baby born into the family a few weeks ago. She and her mamma went on many prayer lists at Nancy's request! Nancy often mentioned her husband, calling him "My Honey."

All my best to "Grandma Nancy's" family. You are in my thoughts and prayers. We'll all see Nancy again some day and what a joyous reunion that will be!

With sincere love and sympathy,

Betty Doherty

“ Just wanted to tell you that you looked beautiful the last two days we got to see you. Please save us all a dance when it is our turn to come home. When the sun shines and the clouds pour we know you are the one who is running the show now!! Thanks again for the wonderful parents you have left us with we will treasure them always...##imported-begin##Unknown##imported-end##

“ God Bless you and yours in your time of sadness. I can't believe I'll never hear that throaty chuckle or get a really silly email. You were the first one to take me 'the dumb new girl' under your wing when I first started at FSI. The nick-name you gave me 'Wats'. The many nights & week-ends Marilyn, Doris, you & I spent during TIL eating stale donuts with an occasional beer. How sometimes we weren't exactly working as hard as we should be and would find ourselves out in the plant with Mary, Faye & Sherry. The time you turned the heat unit off on the shrink-wrapper and then layed on the conveyer belt and rode thru it like an amusement park ride. We'd see someone we thought looked familiar and you'd tell me, "Oh yeah I know him, I used to do wash for his mother". And you didn't know them from Adam! I'll miss you my friend. “ It hurts so badly to have you gone - to know I'll never get a silly e-mail or have a girl talk and try and solve the problems of the world. You have been a sunbeam in my life and in the lives of everyone who met you for even just a moment. You will never, ever be forgotten. Be happy and at peace, dear friend.##imported-begin##Linda Russell##imported-end##

“ For Nancy and all who loved her...God Bless you and yours in your time of sadness. As a girl I remember spending time in a home filled with so much love and joy. What a lively household! Energized with the laughter of children. Nancy seemed to be the heart of soul of the family. Someone with such a zest for life is never really gone. She lives on in her children, and her friends, my folks, Bill & Judy Plate. Prayers and condolences. Love, Margo##imported-begin##Margo E. (Vidot)##imported-end##

“ Dearest Mother, there has been a hole placed in my heart with your leaving but I am so very happy that you are now walking with Jesus. Not only were we blessed by having you as our Mother but I feel that if you were to ask anyone who knew you they would feel as blessed as we are. To know you is to love you and there will never be another like you. I want to thank you for allowing each of us to be our own person and for guiding us with your loving hand to become responsible adults. Also I thank you for teaching us compassion, forgiveness and most of all love. Please give my Grandma and Grandpa a kiss for I am sure they are glad to have you home. You were not only my Mother but my friend and I will love and miss you deeply. Always and forever, your loving daughter.###imported-begin###Petie###imported-end###

“ First and most important I love you. You have been so much more to all of us than just a grandma. You will live on with us everyday in our minds and hearts. I can not wait to teach Ava your crazy songs and stories you told us all when we were little. You made us believe in fire that changed colors and bears that shook out camper!! I will make sure Ava knows how much you loved her and how she looked at you when you held her. I thank you for the time we had and the mother you gave us. I also thank you for the fun emails I would get from you everyday I will miss that. We love you so much and pray that you will watch over our little girl in the future. Tell Grandma Bess I still have her UNO cards and give her a big kiss. I'm glad you are home now and in gods loving hands. You mean the world to us and always will.

Thank you for your time hear on earth.###imported-begin###Stacy, Mike and Baby Ava###imported-end###

“G-ma, I don't know where to start. I thought you would live for a hundred years. With that aside, I am so glad we had the years we did. I will never forget our trips to Denny's and IHOP to have breakfast for dinner. Taking you to get your gigantic "frodog" hair cut, or just spending time with you just doing nothing. You were a best friend to so many and I was blessed to have you as a godmother too. I must ask, wear are my tennis shoes? Well be sure you give Grandma Bess a hard time and don't argue to much. You never win. Thank you so much for being you, and thank you for the memories. We will love and cherish you always. By the way, I am saving you a seat at Braelyn's baptism. Don't forget to bring a dish for the party. HA. We love you so mmuch and will miss you terribly. Tell Grandma Bess hello.##imported-begin##Kristen, Kevin, and Braelyn##imported-end##

“Grandma, You left us to soon, but we know you are in a safe place in heaven with Grandma Bess. We will always cherish the time we had with you and when Chase always beat you at UNO. HA.HA. You were much more than a Grandma, you were also our friend. We will miss you dearly and please watch over our boys. We love you. xoxoxoxo##imported-begin##Lori, Nick, Chase, and Cayden##imported-end##

“ I have been blessed with you as mom. What a treasure I'll have for the rest of my life. My only comfort now is knowing you are with God. Your love for life and all who knew you will live on with the many things you said and did. You showed us real love. God's love. How special you are. I love you and miss you with all my heart.
