

Nicholas L. Madden

May 6, 1979 - September 2, 2012

Nicholas L. Madden, fortified with the Sacraments of Holy Mother Church on September 2, 2012. Beloved son of Dennis and Debbie (Miller) Madden; loving, brother of Sarah Madden; grandson to Paul and Velma Miller and Ellis and Jessie Madden. He was a much loved nephew, cousin and friend to many others.

Nick was born in Dayton, OH. He graduated from Hazelwood East High School in 1999 and attended St. Louis Community College majoring in Culinary Arts. In high school he took part in wrestling and football. Growing up Nick had developed a passion for the outdoors and loved fishing, camping, rafting, and hunting.

Nick was working as a Chef in New Orleans, LA at the time of his passing. He had moved to New Orleans with friends after hurricane Katrina. New Orleans allowed Nick to develop his two passions in life: fishing and cooking.

Nick had many good friends in New Orleans and St. Louis. Everyone seems to know "Big Nick" or "Slim". He was a gentle, helpful, caring person to many people. There isn't anyone who will not miss the big bear hugs and his never-ending smiles of the "gentle giant".
