“ Aunt Pauline (or Aunt Polly as she is known in literature), I will always remember the chicken and dumplings you fed me during my stay in the basement with Grandma during college. I will always remember Sunday morning donuts :-) I will always remember the fun and arguing between you and your sister when you guys got together. I will always remember you. We love you always 💖😊 ”

“ There are many memories that Christopher has of his Aunt Pauline. He spent summer vacations with "The Cousins". Then there are the memories that we both share. One that comes to mind is when Aunt Pauline came to Chicago to attend a conference. We picked her up at the train station and decided to take her to Greek Town to the Greek Isles restaurant. We found out that she hadn't eaten in a Greek Restaurant before. She got such a kick out of watching the flaming saganaki going by and everyone shouting "Oopa!!!". I don't know if she liked the Greek food, but the experience sure seemed to put a smile on her face. Her smile is what I will remember most. It was beautiful.

“ Pauline gifted us neighborhood kids with many wonderful adventures.
She took us to the riverfront on the 4th of July.
I remember lying on a blanket, watching the fireworks reflect off the Arch.
She also dragged us to the Tivoli to watch Fantasia, smuggling snacks in her purse.
Pauline ruled the snacking game.
Pepsi and Hydrox for her.
Coke and Oreos for everyone else.
She was our fearless Girl Scout leader and as we grew older, our friend.
Thanks for the memories!

“ To all my Pearson brothers and sisters! Our deepest sympathy! So many wonderful memories! Camping in the the heavy duty Coleman tent, the wonderful birthday parties that were touched by your mom's artistic hand, the costumes for the school parades, the gumdrop tree and foil sled at Christmas, trips to the library, Brownies and Girl Scouts, Christmas Caroling, camping trips, the munny, driving neighborhood kids in her station wagon, the picnics with the clergy, loving all of us when we screwed up. To you Mrs Pearson, heaven is a richer place today! Say high to Al, Ed, Margaret, Martin; and give Brian a big hug from all of us. Spread your wings and fly! Love the little girl from Thrush-Maureen
