“ Coach Day was my first softball coach in 2nd grade. He saw something in me that I didn't know existed (just yet). I had never played organized softball. Bob found a place for me on the team. I spent many hours together with Veronica, Alicia, Kathy, Karen, and many other gals learning from him. Like so many of us, I spent hours and hours together with the family hanging out. The pizzas from BJ's while we watched cork ball out back, sleep overs, jumping on the trampoline or laying out before class in the 10th grade. The Day's always had room for one more. Rest in peace with Jeanie and thanks for the lifetime of memories. Ginger (Hey) Champion

“Coach Day, I can still see your knees bent and hands tucked in tight. That's how you taught us to hit. And man could we hit. Always loved going to your house to hang out, jumping on the trampoline, playing pool. Always felt welcome in your home. Can't see an orange Corvette without thinking of you.

Rest in Peace.

“ The father I never had. Robert Day was willing to share his already busy life taking on 1, sometimes 2 jobs, raising four children and then unexpectedly, added five more. His goal, to ensure we grew-up to be responsible, caring, loving adults. He did just that.

Everyone that knew "Pops" understood his passion with sports and he was competitive in every sport he got himself involved in. This trait passed on to his kids and as we grew-up playing our favorite sports, we were driven for nothing less than the BEST and.... FIRST place was our ONLY option. I vividly remember many, first place trophies, celebrations and feeling good about my accomplishments. It was always rewarding to receive that big bear hug when we made him proud. Never, never forget those memories. There are so many more which I will cherish, just one more I have to mention, his love of Corvettes. We couldn't wait our turn to cruise the neighborhood sitting shotgun, sometimes squeezing two in the passenger seat or even hiding in the very back just so more of us could experience the ride.

I know he missed Aunt Jeannie tremendously and is now with his partner for eternal life, smiling down at all of us confirming he is good and very happy!

*Love you always and forever, one of your adopted daughters, Alicia

“ I will never forget Thanksgiving day at the Day household. Not sure how we ever managed to fit all of those people under one roof! Needing more than one roof to fit all of your friends and family under is proof of a life well lived....Uncle Bob did just that and will be dearly missed! My condolences to his family members.
