“Uncle Bob was Dad's (George Anthony Wallis) only brother. I know how much he loved Uncle Bob as he spoke of him often. I still remember riding go karts in the back yard when we visited St. Louis so many years ago. When Dad passed, Uncle Bob called and I was blessed to hear his voice. I know God will ensure that these two wonderful Dads meet up again in Heaven and in His Grace. God Bless Uncle Bob.

“My heart is with you!!! He was such a blessing to me after, Katrina. I was so surprised to hear his voice calling ME to see how we were after the Storm. He was always our "coolest" Uncle!
I'll miss his funny emails, too! They helped me laugh through some bumpy roads.
I know he is happy and at peace!
God bless,

“So sad to hear about Bob. We were neighbors for such a short time but enjoyed his friendship with conversations about motorcycles and bassett hounds. Our prayers are with you and your family in this sad time. Steve Matthews and Margie Matthews.
