“ Its not very often that we remember the circumstances about your first meeting of someone. I remember the day that Bobby was born into this world, I was nine years old and I was on vacation with my parents, Bobby's grandparents Barb and Tony. We had just gotten to Wisconsin when we got word that he had been born, I can remember being so excited to meet him when we returned home. With the loss of my parents it was life taking its coarse. I know that he is with them and he is at peace.
