“ Jason, I knew your grandmother from 4th Baptist Church. She was very kind to me ... strict and stern, but kind. Your mother was my best friend growing up and I spent many weekends at your house in Florissant. We lived close to the church and a neighbor lady took me to Sunday school where I met your mom. Sally and I gave Ruby a few fits ... especially when we became teenagers. Many times your grandmother would leave the choir and come sit between us because she could see Sally and I were passing notes or talking. Your mother and I used to sing duets for the church congregation on Sunday. I cherish the memories of your mother, Reverend Graves and Ruby. God Bless You Always.
