“ What a special lady I had the chance to know! When I met Craig about 8 years ago one thing that impressed me about him was the love he had for her and the time he devoted to her.... Hockey games football games fishing...or just riding around and grabbing a pizza.
After I met her and enjoyed some time with her myself I totally understood his love for her. She was so much fun and enjoyed life to the fullest. She will be missed! Peace and comfort to all of you.

“ *Michael and family,
You have our deepest sympathy at this sad time.
I have wonderful memories of visiting my Aunt Ruby and Uncle Roy's home when Glen, Jim, Pat and I were just kids. Aunt Ruby always had fun trips to the museum and zoo planned for us and great food. She was a warm and wonderful person. I was so happy to talk with here on her 100th birthday.
Such good memories of a sweet lady.
Love to you all,
Lois*

I have very many fond memories of my grandmother and grandfather. Maybe a lot of people don't know ,my grandparents were like second parents. I use to spend weekends with them. Even in college I would pack a bag and spend a night or two. Slept in the twin bed middle room. When I was young though shared grams bed remember using ponds face cream and listen to night radio till falling asleep. Learning how to crocet or an attempt. Lets see remember going shopping on Saturdays with grandmother at Famous barr while my parents worked. My mom would give a twenty five-thirty dollar limit. There was the learning to make her famous rolls, she served every Thanksgiving and Christmas. Everyone bring a dish there would be so much food and everyone got along. GRANDMOTHERS bring people and places together . I have always been taught even as a young child treat others how you want to be treated. I can say my Grandmother helped raise me well. The most I can wish for in life is to be surrounded by loving sound people. I helped take care of my grandmother and her affairs the good and sometimes hard decissions. I looked after her and looked out for her as well. I think grandmother Ruby would like her farewell . I believe she would love her resting place with Angels to surround her and for her to be with God . I loved my grandmother and always will .It brought tears to my eyes when Joan called and told me what a great job I did of taking care of my grandmother and mom. Sometimes the best things in life are free.... that is a persons time. It can not be measured , but it is pure. Grandmother was a woman of faith and more then a few times we prayed together. When we prayed together we made the earth shake a bit and made things happen.I have to also believe she is one more Angel looking down on me bouncing off evil and hearsay. I discovered my grandmothers prayer that Kim my cousin typed out for me , thank you Kim. I know we all have one more Angel and God has seen she can be something. She may already have her own chair up there! Well God bless Ruby Jewel Miller . One day my time will come , but I understanf now wht God sent me back and I was told its not my time. I had to serve Ruby and my mom as well. Later I will see what God has in store for me next. Grandma is at peace .

Thanks Mechelle that is beautiful, it is about ALL of us as grandchildren, not just one grandchild who tries to make it all about them. We all have wonderful memories of our grandmother and our time with her.

Michael Miller - March 28, 2016 at 04:27 PM

Yes we all were at those fantastic yearly parties . In a very small house , but we all managed it. Never one food fightlol. It would have been too good to waste! Jason mentioned the dinners yesterday at Easter. I remember having pink and purple hair when Jason was younger. We looked through the "missing box " of pictures. She told us you two don't take them pictures out of this room ! I think we would have gotten a switch if we did;O

Mechelle Engelhardt - March 28, 2016 at 04:41 PM

One of my favorite memories of Grandma I think I was about 5 years old and I spent the night at their house on Emerling, I slept in the middle bedroom, and Grandma woke me up, and I got to have grape juice and pancakes, and they even let me drink coffee. Another memory of her is when my brother was born and we stayed the night over there, the next day she sent Kim and I and the other one to the store, and we came back she was making a roast beef dinner and a homemade peach cobbler, I stood there in her cheery yellow kitchen and watched her make her crust for the cobbler on a burlap or flour sack as she rolled it out. That dinner was so good, and Dad came over from the hospital from being with Mom & Chris we were all so happy with the new baby being there.

Grandma would work so hard on those dinners, the homemade cranberry sauce and the rolls that were so light you would think they would float on their own, the turkey and mashed potatoes. Everything always tasted so good, and I don't know how she did it for everyone. WE (all of us not just one) were lucky to have her as a Grandma, I remember all of the time she would spend going up to Stamer's to see Grandma Minor and take care of her.

Yes Mike Grandmother Ruby was kind to all of her grandchildren. I never remember her being unkind to anyone, except maybe after a little dementia set in at times. Never tell grams to go to bed at 2am lol or she scratch your eye.
