

Sharon Ann Bergauer

March 15, 1938 - August 3, 2015

Sharon Ann Bergauer, 77, passed away on Aug. 3, 2015.

Loving wife of 51 years to the late Nicholas Bergauer; dear mother to Susan(Ed) Benz, Scott Bergauer, Sandy(Gerry) Maddock and Stephanie(Tim) Goodman; caring grandmother to Julia Benz, Jennifer Rockwell and Chris Reynolds; Dear Great-Grandmother to Ellie and Garrett Rockwell, Gavin, Brendon and Owen Reynolds. Dear sister to Dale Rose and Monica Rose. There are not enough words to describe the profound goodness of Sharon's soul. Giving to others brought her more happiness than anyone could ever know. The hours she spent making crafts, scrapbooks, and cards for family, friends and Scott's ARC group showed this. She gave her time. Being able to spend time with this amazing woman was the best gift that she could give because her goodness radiated from within.

She filled people with joy. She will be missed by all who knew her, because everyone who met her loved her.

Her devout faith should comfort us, as we know she has transcended into God's loving arms. May your memories fill the void in your heart left by the passing of the beautiful soul.

“ Sharon was a great Lady we really appreciate her coming to the center every 2nd Thursday of the month. She will truly be missed. She would always keep me in her prayers and i am so thankful to her for that. I am really going to miss her. I remember our last conversation i asked her what was our next project and she said the fish again. We at the center will keep her love of arts and crafts going each month. Sharon was a person i could talk to about anything and she would always listen and give sound advice. I will always be here for the family feel free to call me for anything. I loved this women more than words can say. Diane H. Arc North county CI

“ *Mrs. Bergauer would always greet everyone with a smile and by name. She presented us each month with a fun and creative craft that the guys just love doing. Every Christmas we could expect a personalized homemade christmas card that we will cherish for a life time and a box of chocolate that we would devour in no time at all. I am so fortunate to have had the opportunity to meet and know this wonderful lady and her wonderful son Scott and his sisters. Thank you for sharing your mom with us. Kelly Simmons. “ I cannot say enough as to how my heart is broken for the family. Sharon and I have gone out to lunch numerous times with Scott and Chrissy (my daughters) case worker. She has always had kind words for people. It has been a joy to have her and Scott in our lives. I can remember the story that she told me about how Scott said he needed to go to "Zs" to get Chrissy a ring. She kept asking him "Zs?". She said she would have to check to see if Chrissy had pierced ears, and he said, " No mom, a RING 💍". She and Scott came to Chrissy's 30th birthday party, and that meant so much. All I can say is that she will be missed and I really appreciate her friendship. God Bless you Sharon. You are in Gods hands now.

“ Sue, Scott, Sandy, Stephanie.

Words cannot express the sorrow in my heart to hear of your moms passing. She was a beautiful lady both inside & out. She was an inspiration to everyone who knew her. It gives me comfort to know she is at peace in the arms of Our Savior and that she & your dad are back together. Remember that we are all here for you.

Love to all of you,

“ Dear Sandy, Stephanie, Susan, Scott and all of the other family members,

Sharon was the most loving, caring, God fearing woman you would want to know. I loved her like a sister and was proud to be a part of what she called our little group "the church ladies". She brought so much light and laughter to our group. She prayed dearly for each and every one of you! She loved life to the fullest!

I remember the last time we were taking pictures she said she was practicing a new smile because the girls said she needed to show more teeth in her smile. She was too funny.

I am glad she was able to make our lunch meeting only a few weeks ago and I am so glad I got to see her on Friday to let her know I loved her.

God called home one of the best! She will be dearly missed by everyone that knew her! May God wrap you in his loving arms and bring comfort to you. My sympathies to your family and my prayers for all of you.

Hugs,
Jackie Garger

“ The many Wednesday's and the many hours I was blessed to study the Word with your Mom and the rest of the "Church Ladies" were so special to me! She was so curious to find answers to what she read! We explored together the sweet wonder of God's message to us! Her faith was very strong and she shared it! How I loved her! How I loved our study together! Then our lunches to get to know each other's families and likes and interests! I am going to miss her dearly and it breaks my heart to think of her empty chair when we gather. God help us and, God help her family, to learn how to go on without her. When the pain is too deep we need to remember that she is resting in the arms of her Savior! And that she is walking the streets of Heaven having His promises revealed now! I love you Sharon!
