“ In loving memory of my cousin, Tommy. As children, we spent many hours playing at our grandparents farm on weekends. Swimming in the creek, exploring, just goofing off. Fond memories for which I am most grateful. RIP, Tommy. Peace & Love - Cyril

“ *Share a memory? Where do I start, Tommy was one of my closest childhood friends, I knew him when he was about 10 years old, and we started running together when he was 14, and I was 16 (I had wheels). As teenagers we mostly chased girls, (which Tommy was pretty good at) and we continued hanging out well into our married lives. We went to Big Red football games together, and partied, we went to clubs, and partied, we went to,,, well, lets just say we partied a lot. We stayed in touch well into our 40's until I moved out to O'Fallon and we just kind lost touch. I saw Tommy again at my brothers wake a few years ago and he was still the same happy-go-lucky, loyal friend (brother) I had always known. I now live in Florida, and deeply regret not being able to make it to the services but my thoughts and sympathies are with his family.
See ya later Bro.*
