“ So sorry to hear about Bill's passing. I got to know Bill from coaching at St. Norbert, and then spent time chatting with him on occasion while watching Tyler play baseball with my son at MCHS. Bill was a great guy. Bill, Tyler, and the rest of the family are in my prayers.

“ I have known Bill for 21 years and he was always fun and loved children. Tyler is his pride and joy. I remember how he took such time and interest and love in his family.
he and I would get ready with setting up for the big Thanksgiving Dinner, a family reunion.
he could always make Cindy smile and think of fun things and times. He was a hard worker and a goal in life to be a great Dad. Cindy and Bill were a team and worked hard for their family with love. He also was a animal lover and was very easy going.
He is definitely going to be missed.

Deepest Sympathy and prayers,
Love Cheryl

“ We have known Bill for about twenty years. He has always been a great person to talk to about sports and discuss which team was going to win each year at the Thanksgiving family gatherings. Bill never missed an opportunity to have a conversation with each of us every time we saw him. He was very personable and always smiling. Everyone could see his great love for his family. Bill is going to be greatly missed. We are truly sorry for your loss.

Sending our love and prayers your way,
The Sciaratta Family

“ Over the last three years I had the privledge of getting to know Bill as his rep with the USA TODAY newspaper. Bill was the kind of contractor you could always count on and took so much pride in his work. I had many conversations with Bill over the years and he always ended up talking about his son. I could tell he was very proud.

Praying for you,
Marc Pauly
